memorandum

DATE: June 23, 2023

FROM: John A. Fulford
U.S. Probation Officer

SUBJECT: Keshia Robbins
Crim. No. 3:18-CR-00061-001(CAR)
Expiration of Supervision with an Outstanding Debt

TO: C. Ashley Royal
Senior U.S. District Judge

Keshia Robbins has an upcoming supervised release expiration date of August 27, 2023. Robbins has an outstanding debt, but we are requesting that she be allowed to discharge with the understanding that her obligation to pay is not alleviated.

Keshia Robbins was sentenced on April 10, 2019, to 18 months imprisonment followed by three years supervised release for the offense of Conspiracy to Commit Bank Theft, Embezzlement, or Misapplication in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371 i/c/w 18 U.S.C. § 656. Restitution in the amount of $298,305.23 was ordered to be paid jointly and severally. The outstanding debt amount is $281,405.01.

Ms. Robbins began her term of supervised release on August 28, 2020. Since her release, Robbins has been employed at Franks Chiropractic Life Center in Greensboro, Georgia. Robbins is currently two months in arrears on her monthly payments of $200 and has agreed to pay arrears by the end of June.

The Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office has been provided with an update on Robbins which includes her financial status and contact information. They have no objections to her being allowed to discharge with an outstanding debt, and they will continue collection efforts following her expiration. Their office has informed Robbins that her monthly payments will be increased to $250 monthly.

If the Court concurs, please note below.
